

Sheikh Anwar N Muhaimin

Religious Leader – Traveling Educator – Writer- Public Speaker

Quba Inc. & Subsidiaries, CEO

(Professional Bio)

Anwar Muhaimin was born in Philadelphia, Pa and left the city at the age of 11 with his family to formally study Islam in Saudi Arabia. He completed memorization of the Holy Quran and was bestowed the title of Sheikh from the Islamic University, Medina , Saudi Arabia, Department of Arabic Language, from which he graduated with a degree in Arabic literature. He holds a graduate degree in Organizational Leadership from Gonzaga University and a certified English language instructor.

He currently serves as President and Senior resident scholar of Quba Inc., a religious non-profit in Philadelphia. He is also the Senior Imam of the Islamic Center of Reading, PA. Additionally, he is a founding board member of the Interfaith Center of Greater Philadelphia, Co-convener of the Religious Leaders Council of Philadelphia, and an Adjunct faculty member of the Respect Graduate School in Allentown, PA.